Office of Mayor

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the television show Twin Peaks created by Mark Frost and David Lynch debuted in 1990 and changed television forever by breaking new ground and inspiring numerous other television shows; and

WHEREAS, Twin Peaks returned to television again in 2017, challenging viewers anew and garnering awards and critical acclaim; and

WHEREAS, Twin Peaks captivated television viewers worldwide with scenes filmed in North Bend and the Snoqualmie Valley that emphasized the natural beauty and history of our region; and

WHEREAS, Twin Peaks has drawn tourists year-round to North Bend, the Snoqualmie Valley and the Greater Seattle area for more than 30 years; and

WHEREAS, Twin Peaks has placed many North Bend and Snoqualmie Valley locations, landmarks, and businesses into popular culture, not limited to: Twede's Café, Snoqualmie Falls, Mt. Si, Olallie State Park, the Salish Lodge & Spa, the Snoqualmie Lumber Mill and DirtFish Rally School, Volition Brewing, E.J. Roberts Park, the Mt. Si Motel, The Roadhouse Restaurant & Inn, the Centennial Log, and Reinig Road; and

WHEREAS, February 24th is celebrated by Twin Peaks fans world-wide as the day when the character of FBI Special Agent Dale Cooper arrived in the town of Twin Peaks;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rob McFarland, Mayor, do hereby proclaim Friday, February 24, 2023, as in the City of North Bend and call upon all citizens to join in the celebration throughout the Snoqualmie Valley with donuts, cherry pie and a damn fine cup of coffee.
